—The ladies and gentlemen of Hartford, married and single, especially the latter, are requested to attend a picnic to be held in the forest near Mr. Press Ross' residence next Saturday. Do not forget to take a basket of good things to eat. Nutting is the object. Let's all go.

—The Brown Chemical Company, Baltimore, Md., proprietors of Brown's celebrated Iron Bitters, have so far been prompt in paying their advertising bills than any patent medicine company we ever advertised for. Their medicine is also prompt in eradicating disease and building up the system.

—Married, in Breckenridge county, Wednesday, Oct. 31, 1883, Mr. Willis Short, of this place, and Miss Aria Greene. The wedded couple left on Thursday via the Louisville Exposition for Florida, which State they will make their future home. We wish them wealth, health and happiness in their new sunny home.

—When you want a pair of good boots don't fail to buy Stark's. Ask those who wore them last year how they like them. Anderson's Bazaar has them.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Foreman died at her old homestead in Hartford last Saturday. She had been lying in a helpless condition for months on account of a broken limb, but for which she would probably have lived for years yet. She was born in Shelby county, Ky., Sept. 18th, 1797, and making her 86 years and one month old the day of her death. She is the last of a family of seven children. Her maiden name was Peyton. She being a sister of Hon. S. O. Peyton, of this town. Mrs. Foreman was universally loved and esteemed for her many excellent qualities of head and heart, and her memory will be kept green in the hearts of many who have been recipients of her kindness.
